

Add a splash of imaginative colour to your day

Useful Tips:

- Time your weekend visit at the Newcastle Regional Gallery for the 11am tour; it sets the scene to make the most of the Gallery.
- If you're visiting the Newcastle Regional Gallery in school holidays with children, contact the Gallery beforehand to find out what activities are programmed to help your child become a budding artist or art critic.
- If you are visiting with a group that has special interests in art, contact the Newcastle Regional Gallery to discuss special tours and workshops.
- John Miller Galleries offers a diverse and high standard exhibition of typically two artists at once. Darby Street Cooks Hill, open Friday to Monday 11am – 6pm.
- Cooks Hill Galleries showcases icons of Australian art and those currently adding to that history for those with some serious spare cash. 67 Bull Street Cooks Hill, open Friday, Saturday and Monday 11am – 6pm and Sunday 2pm – 6pm.
- Back to Back Galleries has a strong emphasis on ceramics with a wonderful space to show off rotating exhibitions. 57 Bull Street Cooks Hill, open Friday to Sunday 12pm – 6pm.
