

Breakfast and boutique shopping on Darby Street

Useful Tips:

- Breakfast at Goldbergs, a local favourite with a name for melt in your mouth pancakes and rich savoury mince on toast. Goldbergs draws in crowds with its grungy/ bohemian interior, all leather club chairs and peeling vintage posters. Choose to dine indoors and bathe in the divine scents of rich coffee or take in the serenity in the private outdoor courtyard surrounded by trees draped with fairy lights, dream catchers and wind chimes (137 Darby Street, Newcastle).
- Abicus, bringing Newcastle folk the best in music and fashion since 2000, with some of the finest Australian and International designers plus the essential selection of music on CD and vinyl. From 'The Tallest Man on Earth' to 'Beach House'... Abicus has all the good stuff (122 – 124 Darby Street, Newcastle).
- Betty Mims is the young fresh face of the Newcastle fashion scene and sells a range of designer threads and accessories (167 Darby Street, Newcastle).
- Blackbird Corner is a must see for boutique local designers and one-off and limited edition clothing and jewellery (70 Darby Street, Newcastle).
- Honeybee proudly supports Australian made fashion, fair trade, organic and sustainable goods. Honeybee celebrates design, function and sustainability, and features women's fashion, jewellery, books, men's tees, kids ware, gifts and home wares (105 Darby Street, Newcastle).
- Cooks Hill Books and Records for a mini labyrinth of books, CDs and records from just about every genre imaginable (72 Darby Street, Newcastle).
- High Tea With Miss Woo, owned and operated by the Foong sisters who design, make and stock a huge range of one-off, original local clothes (74 Darby Street, Newcastle).
